CONGRESS THEME

BRIDGING WORLDS: GLOBAL KNOWLEDGE, LOCAL REALITIES AND BETTER CARE

The FIP world congress 2027 brings together pharmacy leaders, practitioners, educators and scientists from around the world to explore how pharmacy can bridge global knowledge with local realities, turning science into better care. The congress will celebrate pharmacy's role in transforming health through evidence-informed, context-sensitive and patient-centred solutions.

The programme is structured around three subthemes to guide discussions:

GLOBAL EVIDENCE, SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

This subtheme will examine how pharmacists translate scientific advances into safe, effective and accessible care, ensuring that evidence does not remain abstract but drives meaningful impact.

LOCAL CONTEXTS MATTER

Delegates will explore how pharmacy teams can adapt global knowledge to local realities, addressing inequities, optimising workforce capabilities, and delivering patient-centred care.

RESILIENT HEALTH SYSTEMS IN ACTION

This subtheme showcases integrated pharmacy services that improve access, safety and quality of care, while addressing ageing populations, chronic disease management, vaccination, environmental risks and emerging health threats.
